Find Your Path

March - May 2024

CareerSense Find Your Path gives young people the experience needed to thrive in education, employment and training.

CareerSense Find Your Path is an employability programme for young people aged 16-24 based in Edinburgh, with 6 weeks of skills training sessions to ensure you feel ready for work, followed by a 4 week paid work placement at Royal Bank of Scotland/ NatWest in Gogarburn.

Skills Sessions

Sessions will support young people to explore their key skills, develop a positive work mindset, and learn about career pathways, the workplace and applying for jobs.

Mentoring

13 hours of one to one Mentor support to help young people create a personal work profile, build a professional relationship, and set goals for the future.

Work Experience

Work Insight days and a work placement to exercise new skills and build confidence. Paid the National Living Wage of £11.44 per hour.

Who can take part?

Young people aged 16-24 who are not in education or employment and:

- Work-ready but lack experience, confidence and networks.
- Interested in opportunities and further developing themselves.
- Facing additional barriers, e.g. those who are care experienced, have mental health or learning difficulties or low levels of qualification.
- A UK resident or have the right to work in the UK.
- Able to attend programme sessions in person.
